

Shweta brings with her, 20 years of experience in diverse Industry segments like IT, Healthcare, Telecom and Infrastructure sectors. Shweta is currently Leading the Talent Acquisition Centre of Excellence globally for Sterlite Power. Prior to Sterlite she was working with Indus Towers the leading telecom tower infrastructure company as Head of Talent Acquisition and Business HR. Shweta has in past been associated with organizations like Ericsson, Motorola, Qualcomm and UnitedHealth Group.

All across her experience Shweta has been responsible for setting up new geographies within India and outside. She has contributed to the growth of the companies by attracting top talent and helping build strong employer brands. She has led and worked with multi-cultural and multi-national teams across the globe participating in Mergers & Acquisitions and also divestitures. Shweta has been instrumental in creating different staffing and hiring models to suit the business and has been able to bring Talent Acquisition at the fore fronts on the board room strategy.

Shweta has completed her master's in human resources from Pune University and is currently pursuing her Phd.